

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Seminary #207
(616) 471-6371
chmn@andrews.edu

Faculty

Russell Burrill, Chair
Cynthia L. Burrill
Lilianne Doukhan
Roger L. Dudley
Donald C. James
R. Clifford Jones
James J. North
Ricardo Norton
Edward E. Schmidt
Kenneth B. Stout
H. Peter Swanson
Alfonso Valenzuela
Ronald H. Whitehead
Ernest B. Young

CHMN533 (0.5)
Colloquium
Topics include The Pastor and Ministry Functions (required of students not having theological training and/or pastoral internship experience); Health Ministry; Marriage and Family Life Issues; Stewardship; Youth Ministry; Finance; The Small Church, Multi-Church District; Urban Ministry; Equipping Laity; Teaching Ministry; Conflict Management; Church Planting; Human Relations.

CHMN568 (1-12)
Learning in Professional Experience
Used to record credits granted for previous professional experience based on a learning portfolio and reflection paper in degree programs that provide for this option. Guidelines are available from the respective program directors.

CHMN585 (3-4)
Cross-Cultural Communication
A study of the impact of culture on communication and the ways cultures influence values and perceptions. Attention given to developing sensitivity when communicating with people of other cultures. Identical to MSSN585.

CHMN660 (1-9)
Field Practicum
Practical training in a variety of field activities. An individual contract is developed between the student and a Seminary faculty member that includes field supervision of that work, and the writing of a final product or report. Guidelines are available. Repeatable to 9 credits.

CHMN905 (4)
Seminar in Theory and Praxis
The interfacing of theory and praxis and their informing each other from a variety of theological, philosophical, sociological, functional, and related aspects.

PREACHING

Note: No 2 preaching classes may be taken during the same quarter.

CHMN505 (3-4)
Biblical Preaching
A study of the basic theological, theoretical, and procedural principles required for the construction and delivery of effective biblical/expository sermons. Opportunity for students to do supervised preaching in class and receive constructive feedback.

CHMN520 (3-4)
Contextualized Preaching
The history and dynamics of preaching to a particular cultural group, such as African Americans, Hispanics, Youth, and Koreans, with an emphasis on the distinctive homiletical, rhetorical, and cultural qualities required for the effective proclamation of the Gospel to each group.

CHMN600 (3-4)
Preaching from the New Testament
An advanced preaching course focusing on how to work with the various types of New Testament literature, including gospel narrative, parable, and epistle.

CHMN605 (3-4)
Theology and Preaching
Examines the interrelationship of preaching and theology, with emphasis on the theology of preaching. Admission by permission of instructor.

CHMN607 (3-4)
Preaching from the Old Testament
An advanced preaching course focusing on the analysis of the various types of Old Testament literature and special themes found in selected passages. Identical to OTST607.

CHMN621 (3-4)
Evangelistic Preaching
The preparation and delivery of gospel-based doctrinal and revival sermons for outreach and renewal. Includes a survey of various evangelistic preaching methods of the past and present.

CHMN627 (3-4)
Black Preaching
An advanced preaching course which seeks to refine and further develop the preaching skills of those called to preach among African Americans. Includes a survey and analysis of great Black preachers.

CHMN637 (3-4)
Seminar in Preaching
An advanced preaching course emphasizing such topics as homiletical theory, history of preaching, persuasion, current preaching trends and models, and experimental preaching techniques. Repeatable. Prerequisite: 6 previous graduate credits of preaching courses.

CHMN680 (3-4)
Preaching from Selected Books of the Bible
An advanced preaching course emphasizing the preaching challenges and opportunities of working with targeted books of scripture. Repeatable.

CHMN725 (3-4)
Word and Worship in the African-American Tradition
Explores the worship and preaching traditions of the African-American church, as well as resources that can enable a meaningful and dynamic experience in these areas.

- CHMN730 (3-4) as a minister. New areas of mutual effort.
- Advanced Sermon Design
Explores the theological meaning of preaching and examines the theories, forms, methods, and issues of preaching—especially as found in the contemporary field of homiletics. A “practical” lab component helps the experienced pastor further develop his/her abilities as an effective preacher.
- CHURCH LEADERSHIP
- CHMN526 (3-4)
Conflict Management in the Church
Biblical resources and contemporary research informing the creative management of differences in the church. Introducing change in the church. Skills training.
- CHMN527 (3-4)
Church Leadership and Administration
Principles and strategies for developing an effective Scripture-based leadership role. The pastor as church leader and administrator.
- CHMN528 (3-4)
Architecture for Worship
Design and structure in church building. Planning, contracting, and supervision in cooperation with the architect and the church-building committee.
- CHMN529 (3-4)
Church and Personal Finance
Financial structure of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Also personal finance of the minister.
- CHMN535 (3-4)
Issues in Black Church Leadership
Consideration of issues such as urbanization, nationalistic and separatist movements, changing family patterns, youth culture, Black/White relations, role and function of regional conferences, factors in church growth, Black theology.
- CHMN554 (3-4)
Introduction to Religious Education
Designed for students who wish to discover philosophical, psychological, historical, and Scriptural foundations of religious education in home, school, and church/community.
- CHMN575 (3-4)
Principles of Stewardship
Explores the foundations for stewardship as a Christian lifestyle and the principles which are needed in a stewardship ministry for the local church.
- CHMN610 (3-4)
Teaching Ministry
A study of adult learning theories and teaching methods equipping the pastor to be an effective teacher.
- CHMN624 (3-4)
The Art of Christian Interpersonal Relations
Leading the congregation into the scriptural principles and practice of Christian relationships. Prerequisite: CHMN555.
- CHMN628 (3-4)
Seminar in Physician-Minister Relationships
Philosophy of health message. Historical development. The minister as a healer and the physician
- CHMN630 (3-4)
Leadership Development
A study of leadership emergence, selection, and training in missionary churches with particular attention paid to strategic issues of various training models and the relationship between formal, informal, and non-formal leadership development. Identical to MSSN630.
- CHMN638 (3-4)
Seminar in Leadership
Emphases from topics such as social psychology of leadership, theological foundations of leadership and pastoral care, management and leadership, leadership styles, conflict management, and church polity and finance. Repeatable. Admission of non-doctoral students by permission of professor.
- CHMN655 (3-4)
Group Theory and Practice in the Church
Action-research in group theory and techniques as applied to the work and life of the church.
- CHMN658 (3-4)
Professional Ethics
An inquiry into the field of professional relations, dilemmas, and decision making within the context of Christian ethics. Emphasis on the identity, activity, and influence (witness) of a Christian professional, primarily in the caring professions. Identical to THST658.
- CHMN664 (3-4)
Equipping Lay Leaders for Church Growth
A study of the church as Christ's body; helping members of the Body to identify their gifts and to be motivated and equipped to use them.
- CHMN727 (3-4)
Leadership in Church Organizations
Explores the mission of the church and how it might best be achieved under God and its human leadership and formulates principles of leadership. Such issues as leadership styles, planning, evaluation, decision making, motivation, the management of change, and the handling of conflict are considered.
- CHMN739 (3-4)
Strategic Planning for African-American Economic Development
Develops proficiency in strategic planning related to economic development and empowerment. Skills in proposal writing and accessing alternative funding are developed.
- CHMN745 (3-4)
Adventist Ministry in the African-American Context
Explores the connecting links between the unique calling and ministry of the Seventh-day Adventist clergy person and the African-American clergy person. Exposure to successful African-American Seventh-day Adventist clergy is provided.
- PASTORAL CARE
- CHMN524 (3-4)
Introduction to Religion and Society
An analysis of both the historical and contemporary function of religion in its social context. Attention given to the development of religious movements, church-sect characteristics, religiosity, religious bureaucracy, and the relationship of religion to other social institutions.
- CHMN540 (3-4)
Church and Urban Community
Analysis of essential characteristics of urban life—diversity, secularity, anonymity, mobility. Study of specific urban issues such as racial conflict, inner-city poverty, middle-class alienation, and changing family patterns.
- CHMN544 (3-4)
The Church and Social Problems
Subject areas: aging, divorce, delinquency, adoption, mental health and illness, drug addiction, crime, mental retardation, contemporary sex mores.
- CHMN545 (1-4)
Pastoral Ministries and Church Policy
Selected topics in the ministries of the pastor, (i.e., hospital visitation, funeral, wedding, dedication of children, baptismal service, etc.), and the duties of the pastor in committee meetings. The practices and policies of the church as represented in The Ministers Manual and The Church Manual.
- CHMN546 (3-4)
Marriage and Family
Examination and development of pastoral tools for premarriage and marriage counseling. Includes study of theological, psychological, and sociological principles and applications for the life cycle of the family.
- CHMN547 (3-4)
The Ministry of Healing
An interdisciplinary study of the nature and function of ministry and medicine as they relate to the integration of the work of the healing agencies of the church and community with the traditional forms of pastoral ministry.
- CHMN548 (3-4)
Religion and the Black Experience
An analysis of the psychological and sociological foundations of the Black religious experience, emerging patterns of change, and a consideration of models and strategies for responding to that change.
- CHMN550 (3-4)
Pastoral Psychology
A specialized study of the psychological realm of human nature as manifested by science and written Divine revelation. Strongly recommended for all students planning a counseling sequence. A prerequisite for CHMN555 for all who have not had General or Introductory Psychology.
- CHMN555 (3-4)
Pastoral Counseling
Introduction to the processes and function of counseling as practiced by the helping professions, particularly of the pastor actively engaged in ministry to a congregation. A weekly lab experience for skills practice is required. Prerequisite: An undergraduate course in general psychology or CHMN550.
- CHMN557 (3-12)
Practicum in Clinical Pastoral Education
Clinical experience in the pastoral care of persons in crisis at an approved CPE center. Prerequisite: CHMN555. Note: Crisis healthcare ministry experience for credit is also available in a Pastoral Care Residency. See CHMN659.

CHMN567 (3-4)
Health Ministry
A study of the Adventist health message in its contemporary expression and application in pastoral work and outreach.

CHMN616 (3-4)
Spirituality in Ministry
Explores topics such as spiritual values in the Adventist faith, the ministry of prayer, and spiritual direction, and others. Repeatable with different topics.

CHMN618 (1)
The Practice of Spirituality
Nurturing a personal relationship with God through involvement with various spiritual disciplines such as prayer, meditation, devotional reading, and journaling under the guidance of an instructor. Repeatable to 3 credits.

CHMN620 (3-4)
Supervision in Ministry
Training in the supervision of Seminary students and ministerial interns in the practice of ministry. Emphasis on formation as well as education. Action-reflection methods utilized in instruction as models for supervision in person-to-person or small group settings.

CHMN640 (3-4)
Seminar in Pastoral Counseling
Application of principles and techniques to specific problem areas in pastoral care. Prerequisite: CHMN665 or its equivalent, or permission of instructor.

CHMN644 (3-4)
Seminar in Chaplaincy Ministries
Studies in the nature of institutional chaplain ministries such as military, health-care, prison, and campus chaplaincies. Repeatable.

CHMN645 (3-4)
Seminar in Marriage and Family Problems
Open to advanced students in pastoral care. Individual research for seminar presentations and analysis of more complex and difficult problems faced by the pastor in the family context. A consideration of special techniques and counseling strategies in handling such problems in the pastoral role.

CHMN646 (3-4)
Seminar in Specialized Ministries
Principles of ministering to people in particular circumstances, such as aging, physical disability, single parenting, delinquency, adoption, substance abuse, and dependency. Repeatable.

CHMN647 (3-4)
Christian Education in the African-American Church
Explores the way African-Americans historically have conducted the task of grounding themselves and growing in the Word of God. The critical role church schools have played in the African-American community is examined.

CHMN659 (1-6)
Practicum in Pastoral Care and Counseling
A skills course in techniques of pastoral visitation, counseling, and appraisal. Opportunity given for students to have direct counseling experience, with preparation and supervised examination of case reports and studies. Supervised experience at an approved Pastoral Care Residency site. Prerequisite: CHMN555.

CHMN665 (3-4)
Advanced Pastoral Counseling
An intensive study of potential contributions of counseling to some of the more disturbing problems brought by members of a congregation to their pastors. Designed to enlarge the pastor's acquaintance with the therapeutic approaches of various referral agencies. Prerequisite: CHMN555 or its equivalent.

CHMN715 (3-4)
Family Ministries and Enrichment Programs
Investigates several model programs with detailed techniques for marriage and family enrichment as well as parent education, such as the Marriage Enrichment Movement and other seminars, retreats, and workshops that can be developed to enhance family wellness.

CHMN726 (3-4)
Research on the Family
Major research methods used in family studies, such as the use of inventories, the preparation of questionnaires, various research designs, data collection and analysis, and interpretation of findings.

CHMN736 (3-4)
Biblical and Theological Models of Community-Based Ministry
Introduces key biblical and theological narratives and models of community-based ministry. The unique contributions of Ellen G. White are investigated.

CHMN740 (3-4)
Pastoral Nurture and Religious Education
Ways a pastor can help a congregation build itself up in Christian faith and knowledge; the doctrine of the church as it pertains to mutual ministries within a local congregation; means for implementing religious education, adapted to the various age levels in the church.

CHMN746 (3-4)
Family Therapy in Pastoral Ministry
An analysis of major therapeutic techniques and interventions for marriages and families in the context of pastoral ministry.

CHMN755 (3-4)
Church and Society
Focuses on the interrelatedness of theology, church, and mission; modern people as the potential recipients of the gospel; analysis of contemporary social structures and life-styles in the light of scriptural norms; development of a biblical anthropology; the human factors at work in the advance of the gospel.

EVANGELISM

CHMN515 (3-4)
Small Group Ministry and Evangelism
A survey of the 4 basic kinds of groups showing the logical steps for organizing and administering a successful small-groups ministry. Covers leadership training, group multiplication, lesson writing, and discipleship.

CHMN558 (3-4)
Scripture Use in Personal Work
Explores the central role of the Scriptures in personal and seminar evangelism for instruction, nurture, and decision making.

CHMN561 (3-4)
Preparation for Public Evangelism
Introduces principles and practices of public evangelism, including the task of planning the details of a public meeting. This is an optional course for those conducting their own meeting.

CHMN562 (6-8)
Field Evangelism
Conducting a public evangelistic event with guidance, or participating in a field school of evangelism under the direction of an approved evangelist. Required: 6 credits in the NADEI program.

CHMN563 (1-4)
General Field Work
Evangelistic and/or pastoral work done in the area churches and surrounding communities. Repeatable. Required: 3 credits in the NADEI program.

CHMN565 (3-4)
Contemporary Denominations and Religious Groups
History, practices, and distinctive beliefs of denominations and religious groups with whom the Seventh-day Adventist evangelist comes in contact.

CHMN566 (1-4)
Church Evangelistic Ministry
Lays the theoretical and methodological foundation to create a discipling community in the local church. Emphasis on lifestyle evangelism and facilitating change and conversion.

CHMN586 (1-4)
Specialized Approaches to Evangelism
A study of one or more particular evangelistic strategies, such as small-group evangelism, felt-need ministries, and youth and university-campus evangelism. Repeatable.

CHMN587 (3-4)
Apologetics in Evangelism
Designed to enhance one's skill in defending the claims of the Christian faith as it relates to various world religions and other systems of beliefs and philosophies including giving reasons for one's faith in order to persuade others to accept Christ.

CHMN606 (3-4)
Techniques in Church Planting
Development of an awareness of the importance of church planting. Basic models and procedures for successful church-planting programs.

CHMN612 (3-4)
Urban Mission
Explores the nature of cities, noting their history, development, and relationship to the mission of God and the church. Students are exposed to various ministries dealing with the hungry, homeless, battered, addicted, and the alienated. Identical to MSSN612.

CHMN615 (3-4)
Evangelism and Church Growth
A study of the principles of church growth in the context of a Seventh-day Adventist theology of evangelism. Application of the principles in the church in North America.

CHMN622 (3-4)

Seminar in Personal Evangelism

Research and presentations on various aspects of soul-winning in one-to-one or small-group encounters, including the development of new methods. This may involve formats, materials, audio-visuals, spiritual and psychological principles, decision seeking, problem solving, etc. Admission of non-doctoral students by permission of instructor.

CHMN623 (3-4)

Innovative Evangelism

Seeks to stimulate new ideas for evangelizing population groups that may be difficult to reach with more traditional methods, as well as broadening the means by which people might be attracted to the gospel. This may involve a review of unique approaches that have been tried by others as well as the development of original plans by students. Admission of non-doctoral students by permission of instructor.

CHMN625 (3-4)

Demographics and Urban Studies

Methods of determining the characteristics of a particular community or target population, with a unique focus on large urban centers, for the purpose of selecting the most effective evangelistic approaches. Includes the use of needs assessments and marketing surveys.

CHMN635 (3-4)

Broadcast Evangelism

Studies church-evangelism strategy involving a locally produced radio program. Planning, preparation, production, and follow-up of short daily programs and spots are emphasized, applying biblical principles of persuasion; includes actual production experience in the studios of WAUS-FM, the university station.

CHMN639 (3-4)

Seminar in Evangelism

Emphases from topics such as theology and history of evangelism and church growth, theory and research in church growth and member retention, evangelism and social alternative strategies for evangelism. Repeatable. Admission of non-doctoral students by permission of instructor.

CHMN649 (3-4)

Cell Church Introduction and Planting

Introduces key principles and gives understanding to cell vision, values, dynamics, and structure of the fastest growing churches in the world, including their latest discoveries. Prerequisite: Adequate field experience in small groups as determined by the instructor.

CHMN667 (3-4)

Health Evangelism

The use of health and temperance programming in outreach to meet people's felt needs; to arouse interest in the broader physical, mental, and spiritual aspects of better living; and to assist those pursuing Adventist ideology to make appropriate lifestyle adjustments.

CHMN669 (3-4)

Advanced Cell Church

Penetrating your community through a cell

church, discipling new believers for ministry, oikos evangelism, cell leadership using an effective equipping track, and weekend training events are emphasized. Identifies strategic priorities in expanding the cell church for further growth.

CHMN670 (3-4)

History of Evangelism

A study of the persons, concepts, methods, and results from the first century to the present involved in preaching the gospel and winning converts to Christianity. Includes a focus on Adventist evangelistic approaches.

CHMN735 (3-4)

Strategies for Church Growth

A study of factors that promote or hinder church growth, followed by a strong emphasis on developing specific strategies for the local church. Identical to MSSN735.

COMMUNICATION

CHMN570 (3-4)

Perspectives in Communication

A survey of communication principles and processes used in the accomplishment of the church's mission, including public relations, print media, news writing, advertising, community relations, exhibits, writing and recording for radio and television, audiovisual, and other communication tools.

SACRED MUSIC AND WORSHIP

CHMN519 (3-4)

Worship and Church Music

An overview of key issues involved in the pastor's responsibilities and opportunities pertaining to the corporate worship of the church. The role of hymns and music in Christian worship.

CHMN578 (0.5-1)

Voice and Hymn Singing

Fundamental understanding of the voice as it relates to singing—includes breathing, tone quality, placement, and aspects of keeping the voice healthy. Seminary chorus participation required. Maximum 3 credits.

CHMN588 (0.5)

Seminary Chorus

Choral studies and participation as a demonstration of evangelistic and church music values. Membership open to the public by the consent of the instructor. Maximum 3 credits.

CHMN590 (3-4)

Ministry of Music

Selected topics in music ministry include church-music practicum: the administration and planning of a church-music program, the creation of liturgies, working with choirs, conducting, leading congregational singing; hymnology: the study of the historical, theological, and musical background and development of the Christian hymn.

CHMN629 (3-4)

Sacred Music in the African-American Tradition

An examination of the historical role of music in African-American worship, and of the distinctive contributions African-American sacred music has made to Christian worship.

CHMN654 (3-4)

History and Theology in Adventist Worship

A study of Adventist corporate worship in terms of the theological and historical issues that inform it. Principles for designing and leading Adventist worship are emphasized.

CHMN710 (3-4)

Seminar in Worship

A study of theological principles that undergird worship practices, a review and evaluation of worship forms from the traditional to the contemporary, and the integration of theology, preaching, worship, and music in a way that leads to worship renewal.

YOUTH STUDIES AND MINISTRY

CHMN534 (3-4)

Foundations of Youth Ministry

Youth Leadership is designed to acquaint students with the opportunities inherent in a ministry to and with young people in the setting of church, school, and home. The biblical principles of youth ministry leadership, within the context of the church community, is given primary emphasis.

CHMN608 (3-4)

Youth in Contemporary Culture

A study of current developments in youth culture and its influence. Students formulate a strategic response relevant to Seventh-day Adventist ministry to youth.

CHMN619 (3-4)

Religious Experience in Adolescence

A survey of the literature on the tasks of adolescence with particular emphasis on how this developmental stage impacts acceptance of or alienation from religion. An investigation into how adolescents develop and experience faith and the various influences—such as parents, peers, church, school, and media.

CHMN636 (3-4)

Seminar in Youth Ministry

Formulation of a comprehensive ministry for a specific age group, culture, or situation (i.e., childhood, adolescence, young adult, African American, Hispanic, youth evangelism). Emphasis given to the identification and pastoral application of principles of developmental psychology. Repeatable. Prerequisite: CHMN534 or permission of professor.

CHMN657 (3-4)

Counseling Youth and Young Adults

Application of counseling theories and techniques to counselees in their teens and twenties. Students engage in actual counseling experiences and submit reports for self and instructor critiques. Prerequisite: CHMN550 recommended for MDiv students.

CHMN720 (3-4)

Current Issues in Youth Ministry

A study from the pastoral perspective of selected issues having to do with the spiritual development of youth from birth to 30 years.

HISPANIC MINISTRIES

CHMN514 (3-4)

Public Evangelism (Hispanic)

Evangelistic leadership. A study of basic principles underlying public evangelistic endeavor, and basic evangelistic procedures focused on the Hispanic-American population.

CHMN525 (3-4)
Hispanic-American Culture and Its Expressions
Studies into the nature of the multifaceted North American Hispanic culture and its expressions.

CHMN728 (3-4)
Latino Preaching
A study of the dynamics of Hispanic preaching with an emphasis on the distinctive homiletical rhetorical, and cultural qualities required for the effective proclamation of the Gospel.

CHMN729 (3-4)
Hispanic Evangelism
A study of principles and methods for evangelizing Hispanics in the U.S.

CHMN738 (3-4)
Bilingual Ministry
A study of the contextual needs of Hispanics born in the U.S., with emphasis on principles for retaining church members and reaching those not in the church.

INDIVIDUAL STUDIES

CHMN690 (1-4)
Independent Study
See general guidelines under Academic Information.

CHMN797 (1-4)
Independent Study

CHMN890 (1-8)
Directed Reading
Repeatable.

CHURCH HISTORY

Seminary #115
(616) 471-3541
chis@andrews.edu

Faculty
Walter B. T. Douglas, Chair
Daniel A. Augsburg
P. Gerard Damsteegt
Robert M. Johnston
George R. Knight
C. Mervyn Maxwell
Jerry Moon

CHIS505 (3-4)
Survey of Church History
An overview of church history from A.D. 100 to recent times. Open only to students who did not take a college course in church history. Does not apply on the CHIS core for MDiv program.

CHIS567 (3-4)
Hispanic-American Church History
The Christian Church in Hispanic North America, in the wider context of Spanish and Latin American church history since the 16th century.

CHIS570 (3-4)
History of the Seventh-day Adventist Church
A topical approach with emphasis on source documents. Intended for students who did not take a college course in denominational history. Does not apply to CHIS core.

CHIS600 (3-4)
The Early Church to A.D. 604
The message and mission of the church; experiences, attitudes, and practices of early Christians, selected for their usefulness to a modern pastor.

CHIS609 (3-4)
The Church in the Middle Ages
Rise of the papacy; the evangelization of Europe; the great schism, investiture controversy, crusades, and conciliarism; religious authority, predestination, justification, church and state, church and sacrament, faith and reason.

CHIS620 (3-4)
Seminar in Christian Biography*
A study of the lives and contributions of selected preachers and other church leaders from ancient times to the present.

CHIS630 (3-4)
History of Jewish Experience
The history of the Jewish people, religion, literature, and culture since biblical times, with emphasis on relationships to Christianity.

CHIS635 (3-4)
History of the African American Churches
An investigation of the African-American experience within the Christian church, with particular focus given to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Study is given to such critical issues as Regional Conferences.

CHIS640 (3-4)
Reformers and the Reformation

Careers and contributions of selected major reformers and the course of their movements; selections announced in advance. Repeatable with different reformers or movements.

CHIS650 (3-4)
English Reformation and Rise of Puritanism
Developments in the 16th and 17th centuries; the Elizabethan Settlement; the Puritan movement and its relation to authority, the kingdom of God, preaching, and the Sabbath; leading Reformers and Puritans and their legacy for today.

CHIS655 (3-4)
Wesley and Methodism
Topics in the historical development of Methodism and Wesleyan theology. Repeatable.

CHIS660 (3-4)
History of Religion in America
The development of religion in America from colonial times to the present. Emphasis on the role of religion in American culture and on such issues as revivalism, the social concerns of the churches, and the evolution of major denominational families.

CHIS664 (3-4)
History of American Religious Thought
Special attention given to the evolution of Calvinistic and Arminian thought, millennial schemes in the 19th and early 20th centuries, and the fundamentalist-modernist controversy. Intellectual developments that influenced the development of Seventh-day Adventism are emphasized.

CHIS665 (3-4)
Modern Church History
The Pietistic movement, evangelical awakenings, the Enlightenment, the rise of the modern missionary impulse, the Oxford Movement, the Vatican Councils, and related phenomena, in the context of their times. Factors that influenced the rise of Seventh-day Adventism are emphasized.

CHIS668 (3-4)
History of Religious Liberty
Religious oppression and freedom in the history of Western civilization with special attention to developments in British Colonial America and the United States; Sunday closing laws and labor unionism as threats to religious freedom; government aid to education; current developments as they occur.

CHIS670 (3-4)
Seminar in History of the Seventh-day Adventist Church*
Research into specific areas of denominational history employing source materials in the Adventist Heritage Center and Ellen G. White Research Center. Repeatable. Prerequisite: CHIS570 or CHIS674.

CHIS673 (3-4)
Development of Seventh-day Adventist Lifestyle
The historical development of Seventh-day Adventist practice and attitude in such areas as healthful living, military service, Sabbath observance, literature evangelism, labor unions, recreation, dress, political activity, marriage, minorities, and education. Repeatable.

CHIS675 (3-4)
Seminar in the Development of Seventh-day